LOCATION - The village and surrounding area is home to over fifty English families throughout the year. It is close to the city of Pontivy, a historic city by the river Blavet, where there are lots of water sports, and where there are a variety of shops, museums and a castle. Around this area of Brittany there are lots of outdoor activities like go-karting, ziplining, wildlife watching and horseback riding, as well as cultural visits to castles and museums celebrating different aspects of French and Breton culture
