BUSINESS AND TECHNICAL COURSES

BUSINESS ENGLISH COURSES

Our Business English Courses will greatly assist you with the English language you require for business meetings, presentations, negotiations with colleagues and clients, representing your organization and describing your organization to clients.

Further to this you will also improve and practise your social English that you use when travelling on business and meeting and entertaining clients. Skills such as writing reports, taking notes and all types of business correspondence including email will be covered as well as telephone techniques. Business vocabulary required for your area of expertise when responding to enquiries and acknowledging orders will also be covered. This course will be individually personalised to suit your specific needs.

HUMAN RESOURCES

This course will provide you with the English language skills needed to perform in a variety of work situations, including interviewing techniques, recruiting, communicating with applicants, conducting appraisals, participating in meetings and using the telephone.

The written and spoken work will be valuable in both formal and social situations.

Whether you require a 1:1 Homestay course, a 2:1 or a group course we can cater to your every need.

SALES AND MARKETING ENGLISH LANGUAGE COURSES

Our Sales and Marketing English language courses include a communication skills programme aimed at improving your ability to build and develop successful international commercial relationships.

Delivered by professionals with many years of experience in international commerce, this specialist English language course focuses on developing your skills within a sales and marketing context, using authentic scenarios to ensure effective and tangible results. Our personalised Sales and Marketing language courses allow you to decide on the emphasis and structure of your course.

English for Sales and Marketing is aimed at business development professionals, international account managers, sales managers and marketers and any professionals working in international sales and marketing who require English to present, conduct negotiations and maintain effective communication with their international colleagues and clients. Following this course our aim is to enable you to make a more effective and persuasive representation of your organization, to increase your interpersonal skills, give you a competitive edge and liaise more effectively with international colleagues.

TECHNICAL ENGLISH

Technical English courses as well as helping you to understand technical documentation in your area of expertise can also assist you in communicating with colleagues working on similar projects. The course can help you to improve on specialised vocabulary and your understanding of the underlying grammar commonly used by technical writers.

Your course will be tailor-made according to the needs of you as an individual or group and will reflect the specific working goals that you wish to achieve. Depending on the student's initial level we aim to help students to interact confidently in an English language work environment, to be able to describe technical diagrams and objects, processes and operations and to understand, give and follow technical instructions.
